

HARVARD COLLEGE OBSERVATORY
60 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138

September 5, 2024

Daniel Tadesse
92 Lexington Street
Boston, MA 02128

Dear Daniel,

I am delighted to offer you an Undergraduate Research Intern appointment in the Institute for Theory and Computation at the Harvard College Observatory in Harvard's Faculty of Arts and Sciences. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Your appointment is intended to facilitate work with Professor Avi Loeb and you will work on research involving the Galileo Project. You are expected to adhere to all Harvard University rules and requirements.

The health of our workforce is a priority for Harvard University. With that in mind, we strongly encourage all employees to be up to date on CDC-recommended vaccines.

[REDACTED]

Generally, taxes are not withheld from stipend payments. Because taxes are not withheld, you may wish to reserve a portion of your stipend for the purpose of paying taxes on the income.

For further information please review the Fellowship Payment FAQs and the University's Policy on Fellowship Payments and Reimbursements for Students and Non-employee Postdocs/Fellows. Additional information regarding tax reporting of fellowship income for non-employee research fellows can be found on this Fellowship Reporting Handout and on the University's Nonresident Alien Tax Compliance web page.

Please note that Harvard is not providing you with any tax guidance or advice, and this information should not be considered tax, financial, or legal advice. Tax considerations are often unique to each individual, and you are encouraged to consult with your own tax professional to determine how to report and treat your stipend payment.

Sincerely,

A. Loeb

Abraham (Avi) Loeb
Frank B. Baird Jr. Professor of Science
Harvard University